Classes in Ghana are undergoing a transformation, and it is thanks to you!

Thanks to your generosity, classrooms across Ghana are being transformed into spaces where children are not just learning, but thriving. Through our partnership with the Olinga Foundation, we're helping ensure that every child has the opportunity to build a strong foundation in reading and learning, no matter their background or circumstances.

Recently, all 37 Reading Ghana project schools participated in a reading competition and it was an incredible success!

Imagine a shy 8-year-old who used to struggle to read aloud now confidently spelling words in front of their peers, and a 12-year-old boy who discovered his love for storytelling through school now captivating the audience during a lively round of charades. This is what your donation has made possible.

Moments like these show what's possible when children are given the chance to see learning as something joyful and empowering. Every book delivery, reading club, and creative event helps nurture a lasting love of reading and opens the door to brighter futures and better opportunities.

Together, we are helping foster a sustainable culture of literacy and learning that is taking root in communities across Ghana and beyond. Thank you for helping to make this possible!

"Education is not preparation for life; it is life itself."

Our GALI-X Project has seen a year of remarkable success!

It's been an extraordinary year of progress and possibility for the girls participating in the Girls' Accelerated Learning Initiative (GALI-X) in Liberia.

Over the 2024-2025 academic year, we saw a promotion rate of 98% and a dropout rate under 2%. The girls also achieved the remarkable, with 81% of them receiving a double promotion and advancing two grade levels in a single year!

These outcomes demonstrate how targeted support, strong mentorship, and accelerated learning can help girls overcome barriers and educational gaps.

We couldn't be prouder of their hard work and determination, and deeply grateful to you for walking alongside them on this journey.

GIVING WITH IMPACT

CODE is honored to have received a double honor from Charity Intelligence Canada in 2025! We received a 5-star rating, and were included on their "Top 100 Charities" list. Charity Intelligence's mission is to provide Canadian donors with information that helps them make informed giving decisions to have the greatest impact.
