

Interested in international development?

Passionate about promoting global education and literacy?

Get involved with CODE on Campus

CODE is a Canadian non-profit that works directly with authors and teachers in Africa, the Caribbean and Canada to ensure that children can access effective teaching and reading materials.

Become part of a network of passionate individuals working together to increase literacy internationally.

Learn more at:
codecan.org/OnCampus

Join a club this year that makes a difference