Climbing Kilimanjaro | JULY 2026
for children's literacy

ITINERARY

July 28, 2026 - Departure

You're packed and ready for the adventure to begin, it's time to catch your flight to Tanzania.

June 29, 2026 - Moshi

Arrive at Kilimanjaro Airport and catch the transfer to Tusker's Hotel for a good night's sleep.

June 30, 2026 - Moshi B

A day to rest, meet your team, and get an orientation from Tusker guides.

July 1, 2026 - Mti Mkubwa Camp B L D

(2,795 meters / 3 hours hiking)
Check in at Londorossi Gate and begin the trek along narrow trails through the pristine montane forest.

July 2, 2026 - Shira Plateau Camp B L D

(3,505 meters / 7-8 hours hiking)
Hike through the heath and moorland, and into the Shira Caldera, a high-altitude desert plateau and enjoy your first glimpse of stunning Kibo peak.

July 3, 2026 - Moir Camp B L D

(4,160 meter / 7-8 hours hiking)
We make our way across the Shira Plateau, past Shira Cathedral towards Moir camp, tucked away at the end of a massive gorge.

July 4, 2026 - Barranco Camp B L D

(3,950 meters / 6-7 hours hiking)
Today's trek takes us to the foot of the Barranco wall via the Lava Tower (4,633 m) and through the giant Senecio habitat.

July 5 - 2026 - Karanga Camp B L D

(4,023 meters / 4-5 hours hiking)
Climbing the Barranco Wall isn't technical, but still an exciting challenge. Enjoy a fantastic view of Kibo peak and the hike through Karanga Valley.

July 6, 2026 - Barafu Camp B L D

(4,556 meters / 3-4 hours hiking)
It's all uphill to the rocky slopes of Barafu "ice" camp. The wind is picking up and you can feel the excitement in the air as the summit day approaches.

July 7, 2026 - The Summit/ Crater Camp B L D

(5,700 meters / 8.5 - 10.5 hours hiking)
Today is the toughest day, but the most rewarding as you make your push for a successful summit of Uhuru peak towering at 5,895 meters above sea level.

July 8, 2026 - Millenium Camp B L D

(3,837 meters / 5-6 hours hiking)
Today we hike up to the Ash pits for spectacular views, where fumaroles are evidence of Kilimanjaro's dormant volcanic state.

July 9, 2026 - Descend to Mweka Gate B L D

(1,676 meters / 6-7 hours hiking)
We make our decent from Kilimanjaro, winding through the rainforest back to the national park gate where Tusker vehicles will greet us and transport us to Moshi Hotel for a well-earned shower and celebration.

July 10, 2026 Departure Day B

Transfer to the airport and fly home or start your wildlife safari.

B=Breakfast | L=Lunch | D=Dinner
